Eric Elison, Lightfoot of The Rockies

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO - Eric Elison, also known as “Lightfoot of the Rockies,” announces that he and his five piece band will be playing their inaugural concert at popular Colorado Springs music venue, Stargazers Theatre and Event Center, on Thursday, 15 August 2019 from 7 to 9 PM.

Eric Elison first burst upon the Colorado music scene in May of 2018. In July of this year, Eric came to the attention of John Hooton, co-owner of Stargazers. John Hooton, who in his role at Stargazers sees and books many Tribute acts was intrigued, and invited Eric Elison to meet. “I was blown away by the quality of his voice and ability to perform Gordon Lightfoot’s songs,” said Hooton who is also a serious Gordon Lightfoot Fan. “I have delved deeply into the music of Gordon Lightfoot, and seen many other people perform his songs. Eric sings Gordon Lightfoot so well, there is no reason that he can’t take this Show national.”

In order to give Fans the best listening experience possible, Eric has put together a band with some of the finest musicians in the Pikes Peak Region. Band members include: Bill Lockard (Drums), Joe Callahan (Lead Guitar), LeRoi Hammond (Keyboard), Jim Vaughn (Bass). Eric and his new band will perform many songs from Lightfoot’s extensive catalog including Hits such as: Sundown, Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, Rainy Day People, and If You Could Read My Mind.
